

MUSIC FOR RELIEF - FIRE RELIEF FUND WEB FAQs

HOW DONATIONS ARE USED

Where will my donation go? Who are the beneficiaries?

The Music for Relief Fire Fund, a charitable services fund of the Entertainment Industry Foundation, will support the relief efforts of three main beneficiaries: the Los Angeles Fire Department Foundation, providing costly hydration backpacks for firemen and night vision goggles for helicopter pilots fighting the fires; L.A. Kitchen, providing food for first responders and people in shelters who have been affected by the fires; and the Humane Society of Ventura County, providing assistance for over 300 animals displaced as a result of the fires.

How much of my donation will go directly toward helping California Firefighters and victims of the wildfires?

All net proceeds received from the public will be distributed to the designated beneficiaries and others working on fire relief efforts in California.

How can my charity apply for funds?

EIF is not taking requests or applications for funding. Monies raised will support three main beneficiaries: the Los Angeles Fire Department Foundation, providing costly hydration backpacks for firemen and night vision goggles for helicopter pilots fighting the fires; L.A. Kitchen, providing food for first responders and people in shelters who have been affected by the fires; and the Humane Society of Ventura County, providing assistance for over 300 animals displaced as a result of the fires.
